

Call for Applications: 4th Interdisciplinary Corruption Research Forum

VARIETIES OF (ANTI)CORRUPTION: LEARNING FROM THE PAST FOR THE FUTURE

13 - 15 June 2019

NaUKMA, Kyiv, Ukraine

50 participants

The Fourth Interdisciplinary Corruption Research Forum

"Varieties of (anti)corruption: Learning from the past for the future" aims to bring together international junior researchers as well as practitioners working in the fields of corruption and anti-corruption. Interactive session will focus on different manifestations of corruption in respective contexts, and on the development of anti-corruption policies in a time of international and public pressure for reform. These discussions will combine theoretical and empirical reflections on the role of political culture, institutions, existing social movements, international organizations, the role of political and economic elites, technological development and media for the dynamics and politics of corruption and the conception(s) of the opposite to corruption.

We warmly invite:

young researchers (PhD, post-doc, advanced Master's level) from all disciplines, as well as practitioners.

IMPORTANT DATES:

§ 15 February 2019 - deadline for application

§ Early March 2019 - notifications of acceptance will be sent

OPPORTUNITY:

§ The best papers will be published in a peer-reviewed international, interdisciplinary journal initiated by the National University of Kyiv-Mohyla Academy, "Kyiv-Mohyla Law and Politics Journal" (KMLPJ).

REGISTRATION:

§ Researchers must provide academic abstracts.

§ Practitioners are required to state their motivation of participation.

§ In assessing your application we will consider the quality, relevance and originality of the proposal, as well as the regional diversity of participants.

If you have further questions or need clarification, please contact the organizational committee at info@icrnetwork.org.

We look forward to receiving your application and hope to see you in Kyiv!

APPLY ON OUR ONLINE PLATFORM:

goo.gl/8cc7LF

OR

